2. APPLICATION OF THESE CONDITIONS

- 2.1 The Barrister provides the Services on the terms set out in the Conditions and subject to his professional obligations under the Code.
- 2.2 Save for this clause, Conditions may be varied, but only by the express agreement of the Parties in writing.
- 2.3 By instructing the Barrister to provide further Services in relation to the Case, the Authorised Person accepts these Conditions in relation to those further Services, as well as in relation to the Services which the Barrister is initially instructed to provide.
- 2.4 These Conditions do not apply where:
 - 2.4.1 the Barrister is paid directly or indirectly (a) by the Legal Aid Agency, through the Community Legal Service or the Criminal Defence Service or (b) by the Crown Prosecution Service; or
 - 2.4.2 the Barrister has entered into a Conditional Fee Agreement in relation to the Case that does not specifically incorporate these Conditions.
- 2.5 Nothing in these Conditions nor any variation referred to in clause 2.2 shall operate so as to conflict with the Barrister's duty under the Code or with the Authorised Person's duty under the SRA Code.

3. THE INSTRUCTIONS TO THE BARRISTER

- 3.1 The Authorised Person must ensure that the Instructions provide the Barrister with the information and material that might reasonably be required by him for the Case and shall provide the Instructions in sufficient time for the provision of the Services requested.
- 3.2 The Authorised Person must respond promptly to any requests for further information or instructions made by the Barrister or authorised to be made on his behalf.
- 3.3 The Authorised Person must inform the Barrister immediately if there is reason to believe that any information or document provided by him to the Barrister is not true and/or accurate and/or is misleading and the grounds for and source of such belief.
- 3.4 Where the Instructions require the Barrister to perform all or any part of the Services urgently the Authorised Person must ensure that:
 - 3.4.1 All such relevant Instructions are clearly marked "Urgent"; and when delivered to the Barrister,
 - 3.4.2 The Instructions set out in clear and unambiguous terms the timescale within which the Services are required and the reason for the urgency.

- 3.5 Following acceptance of the Instructions, should the Authorised Person and the Barrister at any time agree to vary the terms of the timetable, such agreement shall be varied in writing in clear and unambiguous terms.
- 3.6 The Barrister will not be liable for failing to provide the Services with the terms of any agreed timescale if such failure is caused by the reasonable performance by him of his obligations under the Money Laundering Regulations then in force or by the circumstances and/or events outside his control.
- 3.7 Where, having accepted instructions under Clause 3.4, the Barrister first becomes aware of circumstances that make it uncertain whether he will be able to provide the Services within the terms of the timescale or which renders such Services on such terms impossible, he or a person authorised to do so on his behalf, shall promptly notify the Authorised Person and having done so, shall not be liable for any loss or damage consequent on his inability or failure to provide/comply with the timescale and/or consequent upon a decision to terminate the Agreement.
- 3.8 The Authorised Person must inform the Barrister within a reasonable time if the Case is settled or otherwise concluded and will be responsible for fees incurred for work reasonably undertaken by the Barrister up until the date he is so informed.

4. RECEIPT AND ACCEPTANCE OF THE INSTRUCTIONS

- 4.1 Upon receipt of the Instructions, the Barrister will within a reasonable time review the Instructions and inform the Authorised Person whether or not he accepts the Instructions.
- 4.2 Where Clause 3.4.1 applies, the Barrister will promptly review the Instructions and he or a person authorised on his behalf shall inform the Authorised Person whether he accepts the instructions.
- 4.3 The Barrister may accept or refuse the Instructions in the circumstances and for the reasons set out in the Code and the Barrister incurs no liability if he declines any Instructions in accordance with the Code.
- 4.4 Notwithstanding acceptance if Instructions in accordance with Clause 4.1 or 4.2 above, the Barrister shall be entitled to carry out any customer due diligence required by the Money Laundering Regulations then in force. The Authorised Person will provide the Barrister with all reasonable assistance to carry out any necessary customer due diligence including (if required to do so) consenting to the Barrister relying upon the Authorised Person under Regulation 17 of the Money Laundering Regulations.
- 4.5 In the event that the Barrister reasonably suspects that the requirements of the Money Laundering Regulations have not been complied with he may within a reasonable period after receipt of the Instructions in accordance with 4.1 above and promptly after the receipt of instructions in accordance with Clause 4.2 above, withdraw any acceptance of those Instructions without incurring any liability

4.6 Subject to the preceding provisions of this Clause 4, the Agreement comes into effect upon the Barrister accepting the Instructions.

5. CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION AND PUBLICITY

5.1 The Barrister will keep confidential all information provided to him in connection with the Case unless:

5.1.1 he is authorised by the Authorised Person or the Lay Client to disclose it;

5.1.2 the information is in or comes into the public domain without any breach of confidentiality on the part of the Barrister; or

5.1.3 he is required or permitted to disclose it by law, or by any regulatory or fiscal authorities, in which case, to the extent that he is permitted to do so, he will endeavour to give the Authorised Person and/or the Lay Client as much advance notice as possible and permitted of any such required disclosure.

5.2 The Barrister owes the same duty of confidentiality to other lay clients, and he shall not, on the provision of the Service, disclose or make use of any information that might be given to him in confidence in relation to any other matter without the consent of his other lay client.

5.3 Unless the Instructions expressly states in writing to the contrary, the Barrister may permit the Instructions to be read and worked upon by another barrister or by a pupil of his (which also includes a vacation or mini pupil), on terms that that other barrister or pupil shall comply with clause 5.1, the terms of which shall be made known by the Barrister to that other barrister or pupil.

5.4 The Barrister will not be liable for any breach by a barrister or pupil of that barrister's or pupil's obligations under Clause 5.1

5.5 Subject to his obligation under clause 5.1, the Barrister may make and retain copies of the Instructions and any written material produced by him and/or on his behalf by the barrister or pupil mentioned in Clause 5.3

5.6 To the extent such information is already in the public domain, the Barrister may disclose in his marketing and similar materials, and to prospective clients and publishers of legal directories that he is or has been instructed by the Authorised Person and/or for the Lay Client and the nature of the Case. To the extent any such information is not already in the public domain, the Barrister may only refer to it for marketing purposes in a form which sufficiently preserves the Lay Client's privilege and confidentiality and (where the law so requires) with the Lay Client's consent.

6. ELECTRONIC COMMUNICATION

- 6.1 Unless otherwise directed by the Authorised Person, the Barrister may correspond by means of electronic mail, the parties agreeing hereby:
- 6.1.1 to accept the risks of using electronic mail, including but not limited to the risks of viruses, interception and unauthorised access; and
- 6.1.2 to use commercially reasonable procedures to maintain security of electronic mail and to check for commonly known viruses in information sent and received electronically.

7. DATA PROTECTION

- 7.1 The Barrister is a data controller for the purposes of the Data Protection Act and is bound by the Act amongst other things, to take appropriate technical and organisational measures against unauthorised processing of personal data and against accidental loss or destruction of, or damage to, personal data. He is entitled to process (which includes obtaining, consulting, holding, using and disclosing) personal data of the Lay Client, the Authorised Person and others to enable him to provide the Services, to liaise with the Authorised Person in respect of the Lay Client's case or on the Lay Client's behalf, to maintain and update client records, to produce management data, to prevent crime, to publicise his activities as set out in clause 5.6 above, to comply with regulatory requirements and as permitted or required by law. The Lay Client and the Authorised Person each have a right of access and a right of correction in respect of their personal data which the Barrister holds about them, in accordance with data protection legislation.

8. PROVIDING THE SERVICES

- 8.1 The Barrister will exercise reasonable skill and care in providing the Services and will do so consistent with and subject to his professional his professional obligations to the Court and under the Code.
- 8.2 The Barrister will provide the Services by such date as may be agreed between the parties, and in any event will do so within a reasonable time having regard to the nature of the Instructions and his other pre-existing professional obligations as referred to in paragraph 701 of the Code.
- 8.3 The Barrister will provide all information reasonably required to enable the Lay Client and/or Authorised Person to assess what costs have been incurred and to obtain and enforce any order or agreement to pay costs against any third party.

9. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS

- 9.1 All copyright and other intellectual property rights of whatever nature in or attaching to the Barrister's work product, including all documents, reports, written advice or other materials provided by the Barrister to the Authorised Person or the Lay Client belong to and remain with the Barrister. The Authorised Person and the Lay Client have the right and licence to use the Barrister's work product for the particular Case and the particular purpose for which it is prepared. If the Authorised Person or the Lay Client wishes to use copies of the Barrister's work product for purposes other than those for which it is prepared, this will require the express written permission of the Barrister. The moral rights of the Barrister in respect of his work product are asserted.

10. LIABILITY

- 10.1 Subject to Clause 10.3 below, the Barrister is not liable:
- 10.1.1 For any loss or damage, however suffered, to the Authorised Person;
- 10.1.2 To the Lay Client where such loss or damage is the result of any default or breach by the Authorised Person in terms of the Agreement and/or any breach of the SRA Code in connection herewith;
- 10.2 Nor is the Barrister liable for any indirect or consequential loss however suffered.
- 10.3 Nothing in Clause 10.1 shall operate so as to exclude liability where such exclusion is prohibited by law.

11. FEES

- 11.1 The fee for the Services shall in all cases comply with paragraph 405 of the Code and will be calculated as agreed between the Barrister (or his clerk on his behalf) and the Authorised Person, whether prospectively or retrospectively.
- 11.2 The Barrister may agree to provide the Services for a fixed fee or on the basis of an agreed hourly rate or on such other basis as may from time to time be agreed.
- 11.3 If an hourly rate is agreed, that rate will be subject to reasonable periodic review by the Barrister, which review may reflect, but is not limited to, any reasonably significant changes in his status or seniority.
- 11.4 Any variation of the agreed hourly rate and the date on which it shall take effect shall be agreed with the Barrister or a person authorised on his behalf, and the Authorised Person, and should the Authorised Person default upon the agreement, then to paragraph 610 of the Code, the Barrister shall be entitled to treat the agreement as having been terminated by the Authorised Person.

- 11.5 If the fee is not agreed or varied under Clause 11.1 or Clause 11.3, the Barrister shall be entitled to charge such fee for the Services which is reasonable having regard to all relevant circumstances including, but not limited to, any reasonably significant changes in his status or seniority since the Instructions were accepted.
- 11.6 The fee for the Barrister's Services shall be exclusive of any applicable Value Added Tax (or any tax of a similar nature), which shall, if appropriate, be added to the fee at the relevant rate.

12. BILLING, PAYMENT AND INTEREST

- 12.1 Unless agreement has been reached with the Barrister's Clerk under paragraph 12.2, payment for the Services will be made at the time that the Barrister is instructed, and, in any event, in advance of delivery by the Barrister of the Services, whether or not the Barrister has delivered an invoice.
- 12.2 Where an agreement is reached between the Authorised Person and the Barrister's Clerk for deferment of payment under this paragraph (a "Paragraph 12.2 Deferment") the Barrister shall be entitled to deliver an Invoice to the Authorised Person in respect of the Services or any completed part thereof and any disbursements in connection therewith, whether the Authorised Person has requested an Invoice or not and shall do so as soon as reasonably practicable after, but not more than 6 months from the earliest of: (a) a request by the Authorised Person for an Invoice; (b) notification by the Authorised Person that the Case has settled or otherwise concluded; or (c) termination of the Agreement in accordance with the relevant Clauses of these conditions.
- 12.3 The Invoice must set out an itemised description of:
- 12.3.1 the Services provided by the Barrister and the fees charged;
 - 12.3.2 any disbursements incurred and the cost thereof; and
 - 12.3.3 VAT (or any tax of a similar nature), if any.
- 12.4 The Authorised Person must pay the Invoice within 30 days from the date of receipt, time being of the essence, whether or not the Authorised Person has been put in funds by the Lay Client. The Invoice must be paid without any set-off (whether by reason of a complaint made or dispute with the Barrister or otherwise), and without any deduction or withholding on account of any taxes or other charges.
- 12.5 Where the Barrister has delivered an Invoice at the request of the Authorised Person the Barrister will deliver a VAT invoice following receipt of payment.
- 12.6 If the Invoice remains outstanding more than 30 days from the date of receipt, the Barrister is entitled (in addition to any other lawful behaviour):

- 12.6.1 to the fixed sum and interest in accordance with the Late Payment of Commercial Debts (Interest) Act 1998 (or its replacement);
- 12.6.2 to sue the Authorised Person for payment; and/or
- 12.6.3 subject to the Barrister's obligations to the Court and under paragraph 610 of the Code, to refrain from doing any further work on the Case unless payment for that further work is made in advance.

13. TERMINATION

- 13.1 The Authorised Person may terminate the Agreement by giving notice to the Barrister in writing at any time.
- 13.2 The Agreement will terminate automatically as soon as the Barrister is under an obligation pursuant to Part VI of the Code or otherwise to withdraw from the Case or to cease to act and in so doing has complied with any requirements of the Code.
- 13.3 The Barrister may terminate the Agreement by written notice when he is entitled pursuant to Paragraphs 608 to 610 of the Code or otherwise to withdraw from the Case or cease to act and has complied with any requirements of the Code in so doing.
- 13.4 The Barrister and/or the Authorised Person may terminate the Agreement in the circumstances set out in these conditions.
- 13.5 For the avoidance of doubt, termination of the Agreement, whether under this clause 13 or otherwise, does not affect or prejudice any accrued liabilities, rights or remedies of the parties under the Agreement.

14. WAIVER

- 14.1 Except where expressly stated, nothing done or not done by the Barrister or the Authorised Person constitutes a waiver of that party's rights under the Agreement.

15. SEVERABILITY

- 15.1 If any provision of these Conditions is found by a competent court or administrative body of competent jurisdiction to be invalid or unenforceable for any reason, such invalidity or unenforceability shall not affect the other provisions of these Conditions which will remain in full force and effect.
- 15.2 If any provision of these Conditions is found to be invalid or unenforceable but would be valid or enforceable if some part of the provision were deleted, the provision in question will apply with such deletions as may be necessary to make it valid and enforceable.

16. EXCLUSION OF RIGHTS OF THIRD PARTIES

16.1 This Agreement governs the rights and obligations of the Barrister and the Authorised Person towards each other and confers no benefit upon any third party (including the Lay Client). The ability of third parties to enforce any rights under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 is hereby excluded.

17. ENTIRE AGREEMENT

17.1 Subject to clauses 2.2 and 11.1, the Agreement, incorporating these Conditions, comprises the entire agreement between the parties to the exclusion of all other terms and conditions and prior or collateral agreements, negotiations, notices of intention and representations and the parties agree that they have not been induced to enter into the Agreement on the basis of any representation.

18. NOTICES AND DELIVERY

18.1 Any notice or other written communication to be given or delivered under this Agreement may be despatched in hard copy or in electronic form (including fax and email) and shall in the case of a notice to be given to the Barrister be given to him at his last known Chambers' address, fax number or email address and shall in the case of a notice to be given to the Authorised Person be given to him at his last known place of business, fax number or email address.

18.2 Notices and other written communications under this Agreement shall be deemed to have been received:-

18.2.1 In the case of hard copy documents despatched by first class post, on the second working day next following the day of posting;

18.2.2 In the case of documents despatched by second class post, on the fourth working day next following the day of posting;

18.2.3 In the case of documents in electronic form, on the working day next following the date of despatch.

19. GOVERNING LAW, JURISDICTION AND DISPUTE RESOLUTION

19.1 The Agreement and these Conditions shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the law of England and Wales.

19.2 Unless any alternative dispute resolution procedure is agreed between the parties, the parties agree to submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Courts of England and Wales in respect of any dispute which arises out of or under this Agreement.[†]

19.3 Without prejudice to Clause 19.2, the parties may agree to alternative methods of dispute resolution, including submission of any dispute regarding fees to the Voluntary Joint Tribunal on Barristers' Fees where the Authorised Person is a solicitor.[†]

[†] The parties are reminded that if a judgment or a Voluntary Joint Tribunal's award is not fully paid within 30 days, the Barrister may request the Chairman of the General Council of the Bar to include the solicitor on the List of Defaulting Solicitors.
