Caitlin Donovan

Call 2022

+44 (0) 20 7353 3102

Caitlin both prosecutes and defends in criminal cases. She has appeared before magistrates' courts, Crown Courts, and the Court of Appeal. She represents both adult and youth clients, and has particular experience in advocating on behalf of those with vulnerabilities. She is also instructed in regulatory work, appearing before the Nursing and Midwifery Council, representing both the regulator and registrants.

Prior to joining the Criminal Bar, Caitlin volunteered for several legal organisations, including 'THe Rape Project', a rape prevention charity, and at the Manchester Innocence Project. She has sat as a member of the Crown Prosecution Service North West's Public Scrutiny Panel for Violence Against Women and Girls – she reviewed charging decisions, providing recommendations for improvements. She has also consulted on the redrafting of the Bailiwick of Jersey's Sexual Offences Bill.
