Jonathan Crawford

+44 (0) 20 7353 3102

Jonathan Crawford graduated in medicine, surgery and obstetrics from Queens University Belfast in 2015 beginning clinical practice the same year.

During his post-graduate practise, he undertook a Master of Science in sleep medicine at Somerville College, Oxford as well as completing his General Practice with the Royal College of General Practitioners in 2020. He immediately began serving the front lines of the NHS during the Covid-19 pandemic.

Alongside his work in Family Medicine, he developed considerable experience in Unscheduled Care and has served as a Specialty Doctor in Psychiatry.

He began pursuing his law degree by distance learning alongside full-time work in 2021 and graduated with first class honours in 2024 receiving an LLB from the Open University. His vocational legal training was undertaken with the Inns of Court College of Advocacy during which he was awarded the Beryl Cooper Scholarship from Gray's Inn. This was completed in August 2026 shortly after which he began pupillage with 3TG. His interests include general crime, inquests and professional regulatory discipline.
